(Code 1972, § 2-90(a))

Sec. 10-18. Prohibition on transacting business with the city.

(a) No person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(1) through (3) or (7) through (10) shall enter into any contract or transact any business in which the person or a member of the person's immediate family has a financial interest, direct or indirect, with the city or any person or agency acting for the city, and any such contract, agreement or business engagement entered in violation of this section shall render the transaction voidable by the city. Willful violation of this section shall constitute malfeasance in office, and shall effect forfeiture of office or position. Nothing in this section shall prohibit or make illegal the payment of taxes, special assessments or fees and charges for services provided by the city; nor shall anything in this section prohibit or make illegal the purchase of bonds, anticipation notes or other securities that may be issued by the city through underwriters or directly from time to time. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the making or entering into of any contract or transaction which solely creates, defines or specifies the details of the relationship between any person and the city, which relationship is described in section 10-17(1) through (3) or (7) through (10).

(b) The requirements of this section may be waived for a particular transaction only by the affirmative vote of four-fifths of the city commission, after public hearing. Such waiver may be effected only after a finding by four-fifths of the city commission that:

- (1) An open-to-all sealed competitive bid has been submitted by any person defined in section 10-17(1), (2) or (10);
- (2) The bid has been submitted by a person on firm offering services within the scope of practice of architecture, professional engineering, landscaping architecture or registered land surveying as defined by the laws of the state, pursuant to the provisions of the Consultants' Competitive Negotiation Act, and when the bid has been submitted by a person defined in section 10-17(1),

(2) or (10);

- (3) The property or services to be involved in the proposed transaction are unique and the city cannot avail itself of such property or services without entering into a transaction which would violate this section, but for the waiver of its requirements;
- (4) The proposed transaction will be in the best interest of the city.

Such findings shall be spread on the minutes of the city commission. This section shall be applicable only to prospective transactions, and the city may in no case ratify a transaction entered in violation of this section.

(c) This section shall be taken to be cumulative and shall not be construed to amend or repeal any other law pertaining to the same subject matter.

(Code 1972, § 2-90(c); Ord. No. 296-02-A, § 1, 11-12-02)

Sec. 10-19. Further prohibition on transacting business with the city.

No person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(1) through (3) or (7) through (10) shall enter into any contract or transact any business through a firm, corporation, partnership or business entity in which he or any member of his immediate family has a controlling financial interest, direct or indirect, with the city or any person or agency acting for the city, and any such contract, agreement or business engagement entered in violation of this section shall render the transaction voidable by the city. The exceptions contained in section 10-18 also apply to this section.

(Code 1972, § 2-90(d))

Sec. 10-20. Gifts.

No person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(1), (2), (3), (5), (7), (8) or (10) shall, directly or indirectly (including, but not limited to, through any firm, corporation, partnership or business entity in which he or any member of his immediate family has a controlling interest) solicit, accept or receive any gift having a value of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more, whether in the form of money, service, loan, travel, entertainment, hospitality, thing or promise, or in any other form, where the gift is intended to influence him in the performance of his official duties or was intended as a reward for any official action on his part. No person, firm, corporation, partnership or other business entity shall, directly or indirectly, offer to make any such gift to any person described in this section. The limitation contained in this section shall not apply to ceremonies or social gatherings at which meals are consumed and to which twenty-five (25) or more persons have been invited. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prohibit political contributions specifically authorized by F.S. Chapter 99.

(Code 1972, § 2-90(e); Ord. No. 296-96-A, § 1, 9-10-96)

Sec. 10-21. Compulsory disclosure by employees of firms doing business with the city.

Should any person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(1) through (3), (7), (8) or (10) be employed by a corporation, firm, partnership or business entity in which he does not have a controlling financial interest, either himself or through a member of his immediate family, and should the corporation, firm, partnership or business entity have substantial business commitments to or from the city or any city agency, or be subject to direct regulation by the city or a city agency, then such person shall file a sworn statement disclosing such employment and interest with the clerk of the city. This section shall not apply to any person that is an employee of a consultant and is not otherwise a person described in section 10-17(1) through (3), (7), (8) or (10).

(Code 1972, § 2-90(f))

Sec. 10-22. Exploitation of official position.

No person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(1) through (3), (5), (7), (8) or (10) shall corruptly use or attempt to use the person's official position or relationship with the city to secure special privileges, exemptions or benefits for the person or others except as may be specifically permitted by other ordinances and resolutions previously ordained or adopted or hereafter to be ordained or adopted by the city commission.

(Code 1972, § 2-90(g); Ord. No. 296-02-A, § 1, 11-12-02)

Sec. 10-23. Use of confidential information.

No person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(1) through (3), (5), (7), (8) and (10) shall accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which he might reasonably expect would require or induce him to disclose confidential information acquired by him by reason of his official position or by virtue of services rendered, except as authorized by the city, nor shall he ever disclose confidential information garnered or gained through his official position with the city, nor shall he ever use such information, directly or indirectly, for his personal gain or benefit.

(Code 1972, § 2-90(h))

Sec. 10-24. Conflicting employment, outside employment.

(a) No person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(1) through (3), (5), (7), (8) or (10) shall accept other employment which would impair his or her independence of judgment in the performance of his or her public duties. A person covered under this subsection may, if in doubt as to a conflict under this section, request approval as to the other employment from the city commission.

(b) No person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(7) or (8) shall receive any compensation for his or her services as an officer or employee of the city, from any source other than the city, except as may be permitted by this Code.

(c) No person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(1) through (3), (5) or (7) through (10) shall accept outside employment, either incidental, occasional or otherwise where city time, equipment or material is to be used or where such employment or any part thereof is to be performed on city time.

(d) Departmental personnel or employees may accept incidental or occasional outside employment so long as such employment is not contrary, detrimental or adverse to the interests of the city and the approval required in subsection (e) is obtained. This subsection shall not be construed to prevent any other person included in the terms defined in section 10-17(1) through (3), (5) and (10) from accepting outside employment.

(e) Any outside employment by departmental personnel or employees must first be approved in writing by the city manager who shall maintain a complete record of such employment.

(f) Departmental personnel or employees engaged in any outside employment for any person, firm, corporation or business entity shall file an annual renewal request identifying the outside employer and the nature of the work being done pursuant to same. The request shall be filed with the personnel department no later than noon on January 31st of each year, including the January following the first year that such person held such employment. Nor shall such person appear in any court or before any administrative tribunal as counsel or legal advisor to a party who seeks legal relief from the city or a city agency, board or commission through the suit in question.

(b) The requirements of subsection (a) above may be waived for a particular transaction only after full disclosure by the consultant and by affirmative vote of four (4) commissioners, after a factual finding that the proposed transaction will be in the best interest of the city.

(c) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply to any architect, professional engineer, landscape architect or registered land surveyor when the services provided to the city are not subject to the competitive selection requirements of the Consultants' Competitive Negotiations Act.
